Hebrews	225/226	Don McDonald	All are invited to explore the kingdom of God, now founded on grace and truth, fulfilling the law of Moses and the righteousness of God. Dialogue	Library	Silas & Tamara McNiece	A conversational Bible study designed to introduce international students to Christianity while helping them practice their English language skills. Church family members are encouraged to participate as conversational partners.
Discussion of Contemporary Books [Class begins 8/23]	201	James Hallmark and Nancy Shankle	All are invited to discuss selected contemporary books focused on our spiritual heritage and our walk with God. Letters from a Skeptic: Conversations on Reasons to Believe	Commons	Dean Barham	Some have accused followers of Jesus of having to "turn their brains off" to believe. Even devoted believers struggle with legitimate questions about God, Jesus, Scripture, and God's ways of working in the world. Letters from a Skeptic is a real conversation about these themes between a believer and his father, who begins the journey as an atheist. Join us as we explore Scriptures and themes from this conversation to discover God's deeply reasonable and compelling evidence to take the faith-step into a relationship with Him.
This Is What It Looks Like!	Parlor	Kelly Davidson and Various	In the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7), Jesus describes to his disciples what "Kingdom" life is like. Afterward, he descends from the mountain and begins to show his disciples what "Kingdom" life is like. Join us as we study Matthew 8-10 and explore what "Kingdom" living could look like in our world today.
